

THE AUTHORS

ANCA VELICU is a researcher at the Institute of Sociology (Romanian Academy). Her main research interests include youth's use of digital technology, parental mediation, media education and the opportunities to use new media for education. In the last years she becomes interested in young children and digital technology, and how digital literacy is acquired in the early years. Some of the most important projects in which she has participated: 2017–19, Makerspaces in the early years: enhancing digital literacy and creativity (dir. J. Marsh), 2015–17 Friends 2.0 "Friendship" quality in the age of online social networks. Using and abusing personal information among Romanian adolescents (dir. Monica Barbovschi, funded by the Ministry of Education), 2015 Young Children (0–8) and Digital Technologies (dir. Stephane Chaudron), 2014–17, The Digital Literacy and Multimodal Practices of Young Children (dir. J. Marsh), 2009–2014, EU Kids Online Project (dir. S. Livingstone & L. Haddon); 2012–2014, Net Children Go Mobile Project (dir. G. Mascheroni).

MONICA BARBOVSCHI, Ph.D., is an Associated Researcher with the Institute of Sociology at the Romanian Academy and a research consultant with the Regional Center for Studies on the Development of the Information Society (Cetic.br) in Sao Paulo, Brazil. Since 2009, she has been involved in the cross-national EU Kids Online and Net Children Go Mobile projects, working on topics related to young people and social media, as well as qualitative methodologies and ethical challenges in research involving young people. She was also a postdoctoral Arnold F. Graves Fellow with the Centre for Social and Educational Research at Dublin Institute of Technology (2011–2012) in the area of children's rights and a Senior Researcher at the Department of Psychology at Masaryk University in Brno, Czech Republic (2012–2015).

BIANCA BALEA, PhD, is an Assistant Professor in Social statistics at the Faculty of Sociology and Social work, "Babeş-Bolyai" University, Cluj Napoca. Also, she is a post-doctoral researcher at the Institute of Sociology (Romanian Academy) within a research project that addresses the quality of friendship in the age of online social networks. She participated in national and international research projects, among which EU Kids Online, 2009–2014 (dir. Sonia

Rom. Jour. of Sociological Studies, New Series, No. 2, p. 177–179, Bucharest, 2017

Creative Commons License
Attribution–NoDerives CC-BY-ND 4.0

Livingstone and Leslie Haddon, LSE), and Net Children Go Mobile, 2012–2014 (dir. Giovanna Mascheroni). Her current research interests are sociology of the Internet, social and digital inequalities, children's ICT use, friendship and personal data misuse on social media.

VALENTINA MARINESCU is Professor Habilitated at the Department of Sociology, Faculty of Sociology and Social Work, University of Bucharest, Romania. She teaches methods of research in communication sciences, introduction in communication and sociology of mass media both at the BA and MA level. Her main research interests are: communication and media studies. Since 2013 she is Romanian representative in Management Committee of the COST project ISCH 1206 Femicide across Europe. She was Regional Evaluator (Romania and Macedonia) for Roma Education Fund program "Improving the targeting of government support to Roma students in tertiary education" and Country Evaluator of WINNER II Romania for UNIFEM and International Bank for Reconstruction and Development. Her recent publications were: Marinescu, V., Mitu, B. (eds.) Health and the Media: Essays on the Effects of Mass Communication. McFarland, 2016; Marinescu, V., Mitu, B. (eds.). The Power of the Media in Health Communication. Routledge, 2016; Marinescu, V., Branea, S. (eds.) Exploring Political and Gender Relations-New Digital and Cultural Environments. Cambridge Scholars Publishing.

CODRUȚA SÎNTIONEAN is Assistant Professor at the Department of Asian Languages and Literatures at Babeş-Bolyai University in Cluj-Napoca, Romania. She has been in charge of the section of Korean Language and Literature since its creation in 2008. After studying in Japan and South Korea she received her PhD from the Faculty of Letters at Babeş-Bolyai University in 2008. Her academic interests include Korean heritage and Korean history.

BALICA, ECATERINA is senior researcher at the Institute of Sociology of the Romanian Academy, the Laboratory 'Violence and Crime. Prevention and Mediation'. Since 2013 she is Romanian representative in Management Committee of the COST project ISCH 1206 Femicide across Europe. She was coordinator and member of national projects developed in the field of violence (PNII-IDEI/WE-057/2011 Violence and Crime in Europe. Social Interventions and Research Methods financed by CNCS-UEFISCDI, 27/05.12.2011) and homicide (PNI-II-RU-PD-2012-3-0414 Homicide – Suicide in Romania: Incidence, Patterns and Risk Factors, financed by CNCS-UEFISCDI – 61/30.04.2013.). She was member of national projects focused on violence in schools (2011/2012 Research Expert for the project 'Quality in education by the mediation and restorative practices', co-financed by European Social Found – Sectorial Operational Programme Human Resource Development 2007–2013).

She is a member of the Romanian Society of Criminology (2007 – to present), member of the Scientific Committee of the Romanian Society of Criminology (2013 to present) and member of the “Association Internationale des Criminologues de Langue Française” – AICLF (2010-to present).

She is the author of the books: ‘Homicide-suicides in Romania. Statistical data and Media representation’ (Peter Lang 2016), and ‘Violent Crime. Trends and Risk Factors’ (Oscar Print 2008). She is the co-editors (E. Balica & Pascal Decarpes) of ‘Violence and Crime in Europe and Social Interventions and Research Methods’ (Ars Docendi, 2012) and co-authors (A. Păroșanu, E. Balica, A. Bălan) of ‘Mediation in Penal Matters in Romania Evaluation Study and Perspectives’ (CH Beck, 2013, English/Romanian).

Her main research interests are: violent crime, femicide, homicide-suicides, and restorative justice.

